

Having run his own businesses for over 30 years, Peter Holford chose a Just Shutters franchise as his next investment!

Peter emigrated from South Africa this year in search of setting up his own business in the UK. After thorough research, he decided that Just Shutters was the ideal business opportunity that he was looking for.

Peter explains, "I am due to start training in a couple of weeks and I am very much looking forward to getting started. I am excited about generating new business!"

Peter was born in South Africa and lived there until this year. Peter now lives with his wife in Weybridge, just up the road from his Just Shutters territory in Guilford.

For the past 10 years Peter had run his own carpentry business in South Africa and was looking to remain working with wood. Although owning a franchise was not his plan, Just Shutters professionalism and business idea was just what he was looking for.

Peter plans to run his Just Shutters business from home initially, with the idea of building the business up to either sell on or employ management to provide money for retirement.

Just Shutters supply and fit the World's finest plantation shutters. Established by Chris Rucker in Bournemouth, these shutters provide a modern, clean, eye catching alternative to dated blinds and curtains. They have been a huge favourite in the USA for over a hundred years and are fast becoming popular in the UK, as they provide elegance and character in addition to privacy and added security.
